This manual is based upon the research from the years 2006 to 2013 on over 17,409 willing submissive participants who revealed their criteria for the high-level D/s experiences. What you are about to experience is the results and an easy advanced strategies to work the mind of any individual deep into hypnotic domination. These are not scripts but system oriented hypnotic processes that are proven to work when applied to sexual submission.

Tried of Jumping Through Other People's Hoops?

Are you tired of jumping through other people's hoops (like I was) to get where you want to go?

The information you will find here is very controversial. There are many people who are not happy with it being taught. With that said, I have embraced even the most Darkest forms of sexuality. I'm here to share those secrets they don't want you to know.

Who are they to tell you what is moral? Who are they to say you can't use hypnosis to have a better sex life or be a sexual submissive or enjoy oral sex? "Nope you cannot use hypnosis for that. Don't even think about it!"

Think about it-your primary moral duty lies in the pursuit of pleasure so long as you do not forcibly interfere with the rights of others.

As a trainer and hypnotist, I test everything to make sure I get the same results every time. This means very intense sex, BDSM scenes and fieldwork where the technology is tested on unsuspecting patrons. By the time it reaches your hands, it has been engineered to the finest quality.

Programming The Mind For Sexual Submission

I'd like to begin by sharing with you the core strategy for programming your body and mind for "instant ready status of sexual submission" this is beyond a strong, hard erection that will and desire deep within you to serve.

This is just the very beginning of the process. It will only get better and more powerful as I reveal all of my other, more advanced secrets and strategies. (You've got to learn to walk before you learn to fly, right?)

You see, I've spent close to 11 years studying the subjects of hypnosis, persuasion, sexuality, energy manipulation, and many other related fields. And I've gotten myself into some serious situations where I've tested and tweaked the techniques and strategies, to make them the absolute best that they can be.

I have also tested this stuff on myself as well as on many of my submissive lovers over the years.

I trust you know this works and it's extremely powerful.

In this programming guide, I'm going to share with you the best secrets and powerful strategies on how to program/condition your body and mind to perform at the highest level of your sexual submission.

Most people have established reality frames about sexual slavery that are literally working against them.

I first met Ned when he was sixty-two years old. He was a retired stockbroker who spent most of his career in management. His mind would run a mile a minute because he had to make quick decisions all day long. Excessive thinking became habitual and it consumed his mind and ultimately his body. He just could not relax.

Ned was skeptical when he first went through submissive training. He thought submission was paying a prostitute three hundred dollars to be tied up, spanked and masturbated. Over the years, his definition of submission was perverted into a “disservice” frame of reality. In addition, he lacked consistent training.

The obscene part was not Ned’s inability to submit. Nor his over consuming thoughts but his belief that it was impossible to really be sexually enslaved after years of being a so-called submissive to fly-by-night hookers.

One day during training it ‘clicked’ for him. He fully went to a level of the mind where his thoughts turned off and he was in that moment of submissive sexual nirvana. He had no idea that sex slavery was intended for the individual to “turn off.” He had learned through conditioning to be silently relaxed and obedient at level of the mind associated with jumping between theta and alpha brainwave.

Is it easy for you to turn off the switch?

Becoming a sex slave or submissive isn’t easy.

To understand and use this Advanced Sexual Submissive Training you have to know that your sexual desire to be a slave goes beyond your sexual organs and fantasies.

This training focuses on how you sexually communicate internally to yourself through a system of mind codes and externally to other people, which create a sense of your sexual submissive reality. In this training, we create and install meanings that govern your feelings, actions, thought and how you perceive submissive pleasure.

Every sexual experience has a structure. Experiences do not just happen. There is always a structure to your experience-passion, intimacy, arousal and submission. The structure is based upon your frames.

Frames refer to your mental understandings, beliefs, values and expectations. When you do not understand someone, you ask what they're talking about. This creates a frame of reference. In our most basic human conscious process we identify "frames" of our reality. To even speak or think, we have some reference in mind.

There is never just one level of reference either. Our thoughts and feelings about an event can create frames, and those frames can create new thoughts and feelings which create another layer to the frames. Our minds has layers upon layers of frames of references. We develop frames from events that happen to us. We refer to these and we then transform these experiences into a structure to make sense of them. Whenever an experience happens we can then draw conclusions.

All of the frames habituate and turn into our personality. The personality is how we understand, think, perceive, reason, believe and eventually we create an entire system of frames that we use unconsciously to play the "game" of sexual submission.

Submissive Sex Frames

To better understand your behaviors that equate submissive sexuality we start by taking a step back to do quality control on our beliefs to deepen the experience. A lot of people who do this exercise below notice areas of their submission that they purposely are limiting because of an old frame on sex that is operating against them on the subconscious level.

Write out your responses

What do you believe about sexual submission?

What do you believe about deserving and not deserving sexual submission?

What do you believe about needing or not needing sexual submission?

What do you believe about sexual submissive rewards?

What do you believe about sexual submissive punishments?

What do you believe about the nature of sexual submission as a lifestyle?

Does sexual submission last or does it go away?

Can you manage your need for submission or is it beyond your ability to manage?

Now take a look above and go through the list. Take a step back and read through what you wrote. Ask yourself the following questions:

Do my beliefs about sexual submission make it compelling, attractive, valuable or high quality in my life?

Which beliefs about sexual submission are the most empowering?

Which beliefs about sexual submission are the most sabotaging?

Do I have any beliefs about sexual submission that put it outside of my ability to experience it?

Do I have any beliefs that undermine my sexual submission?

The Principles of the Submission in Hypnotic Experience

- Give of yourself in ways that support the Dominant
- The more you relate in ways that evoke trust, the more you will feel connected to your Dominant

- Disclose your mental world, the more you share indirectly through writing out your thoughts, the better the Dominant can understand how you are processing slave training
- Express your emotions through acts of service
- Make yourself open and vulnerable
- Give your presence to the Dominant. Keep your intention and awareness on the training

Creating An Advanced Erotic Hypnosis Induction

It is important that you have the subject in a deep state of trance prior to doing any of the following conditioning cycles in this book.

Step One

You should know by now what is important to them about the trance experience since you were to elicit their hierarchy of criteria. This is by asking them, “What is important to you about sex? What is important to you about your fetish? What is important to you about [something explicitly sexual] or it can be about the specifics. From there you go up the 10 layers of importance.

For example, “What is important to you about sexual submission?” “It is important to me to have long slow sex.” I would then ask, “What is important to you about long slow sex?” “Being able to explore more of their body.” “What is important to you about exploring more of their body?” “To find areas of sexual energy to make them orgasm harder, deeper than before.” “What is important to you about finding areas of sexual energy to make them orgasm harder, deeper, than before?” “To be the best they’ve ever had.” Now you got the answer. Often times it will take a few times for them to stop cloaking and allow the real desire to come out during the elicitation of their hierarchy.

Step Two

Trance pre conditionings: part of your goals as an Erotic Hypnotist will be to create pre conditionings that are very effective based on the reference the submissive has already explained to you.

Pre conditioning is a tactic that takes a bit of planning in that you will want to set up the conditions for the way you want a person to view the experience before you get into the trance experience. This is accomplished easily once you know how to do it. In pre-conditioning you will use the fact that the conscious mind can only handle five to nine pieces of information at a time to your advantage.

You will do this by elegantly giving information to set up the context in which you want the trance to be viewed. In this manner you will be giving enough information that the conscious mind will be preoccupied with those thoughts enough to not raise an objection to the trance once it is presented. You are essentially chasing away any extra room in the mind for any mismatching thoughts.

As you do this if the pre conditioning is set up correctly the only questions that will be left in the mind of your listener are those having to do with another aspect of the given conditioning, not the actual concept of whether you are correct or not. They will assume you are correct because you have already bypassed the ability to criticize your view with the information you have provided.

For example:

“A lot of women can have squirting orgasms even if you don’t believe it. In fact, they say it feels like the finger needs to be moved out of their vaginal canal away from the g-spot for them to release. What I will be doing is touching you lightly here while I have you relax different parts of your body and your mind. What I'm delicately touching is your g-spot and notice how good it feels.

Also notice how you feel like you have to pee. I'm going to tell you right now honey that you can control your urine and you can also orgasm and press down to release what is known as Amrita (female ejaculation). When you can't hold it anymore I want you to press down as hard as you can."

Now just that simple little pre conditioning takes all of the anxiety, all of the worry, all of the past negative programming she's had regarding squirting and it puts it out of the game, because now all of the sudden you've shown her that you've been there before, you're all about her, you know what's going to happen and you've told her how to handle it. So the minute she starts to feel that pressure it validates everything you've just said. She's more willing to let go, she's more inclined to follow instructions and have the massive emotional and erotic experience that ejaculatory orgasms can give her.

Step Three

Tonality, Intention, Set-Up

Have them close their eyes and rest their hands in their lap. At this point, you have given the pre conditionings. This is time to have them focus on their breathing. Say aloud, "Breathe in through your nose and out through your mouth." Pace and lead your subjects breathing patterns by mimicking them. Now take over and have them breathe deeply. Demonstrate what breathing deeply means. Have them breathe deeply three times, in through their nose and out through their mouth.

The tonality of your voice should be like whispering "sweet nothings" into the ear of a lover-sensually sweet.

Step Four

Physical Relaxation

Relax the body from head to toe. Have them focus on a warm vibration, a tingling sensation, a feeling caused by circulation. This done by directing their attention from head, neck, jaw, shoulders, hands, spine, thighs, calves and feet.

For example: “Notice a warm vibration a tingling sensation a feeling caused by circulation moving into your thighs.” The direction of their mind they will begin to notice the vibration and it will be a convincer that they’re dropping into a level of trance.

Pause between each statement and calibrate the expression on your subjects face.

“Physical relaxation is level three. Any time you want to reach this level of the mind all you have to do is mentally repeat and visualize the number 3 three times and it is so. Three. Three. Three.” The number 3 three times creates an anchor so in the future after having done the long induction a couple of times you can just have your subject visualize the 3 three times to create the state of deep physical relaxation.

Step Five

Mental Relaxation Anchors

You can ask your subject beforehand what relaxes their mind. Where do they go to meditate? What do they do after getting home from a long day at work?

Relax the mind.

“Project yourself to an ideal location for mental relaxation. This can be a beach on a warm summer day. This can be a walk in the woods. This can be a hot tub spa. You can feel the hot water bubbles against your skin as you soak deeper into the sensation. Allowing everything to fade. “ You can ask your subject beforehand what relaxes their mind. Where do they go to meditate? What do they do after getting home from a long day at work?

Mental relaxation is level two. Any time you want to reach this level of the mind all you have to do is mentally repeat and visualize the number 2 three times and it is so. Two. Two. Two.” The number 2 three times creates an anchor so in the future after having done the long induction a couple of times you can just have your subject visualize the 2 three times to create the state of deep mental relaxation.

Step Six

Deepeners

A deepener is used to intensify trance depth. A simple repetition of “you are going deeper and deeper...still more deep” serves the purpose most of the time. Use your creativity and imagination to develop more and more deepeners.

The most common deepener is having the person walk down a flight of imaginary stairs to a door. I find it easier to count from 10 to 1 and with each descending number the subject goes deeper and deeper into relaxation.

Starting with 10... 9... 8... [Going very slowly and calibrating their breathing patterns with the speed in which you say the numbers] 7... 6... 5... 4... Going down deeper and deeper... 3... 2... and 1...

This is level 1 a level of the mind where I have complete control over your sensing faculties.

Any time you want to reach this level of the mind all you have to do is mentally repeat and visualize the number 1 three times and it is so. One. One. One.”

The number 1 three times creates an anchor so in the future after having done the long induction a couple of times you can just have your subject visualize the 1 three times to create the sexual submissive center you so desire the subject to have.

Step Seven

The Sexual Submissive Center

Have your subject imagine now they're at their submissive sexual center. Their sexual center is where all the programming starts that you have found in the earlier chapters.

At their sexual center, you can do many different suggestions, metaphors and guided imagery now using their predicates and sensory dominance to form an experience guided towards your subject's criteria for the experience.

Examples to use,

“I want you to float above your body and look down and notice the beauty you see. The pinks, reds and the flushing of circulation in and around your nipples. Now drop down into your body and feel the cold air against them. Your nipples grow stiff and firm.”

Now notice the dissociation and association in the example above.

At their center, you can have the person hyper focus on erogenous zones or you can lead them down into a sexual fantasy. What is their sexual fantasy? What is their sensory dominance? What is their level of hierarchy for the fantasy? You should be able to script out your suggestions and metaphors easily based on the information they provide you in the beginning of this book..

Step Eight

Bring Back

This is when you bring back your subject into waking reality. The easiest way to do this is counting from one to five and at five you will be wide awake feeling fine, feeling better than before.

“Starting with one... Two... Three... Coming out slowly... Four... Five... Eyes open... Wide awake, feeling fine, feeling better than before. “

Step Nine

Pattern Interrupt

Do a pattern interrupt by drawing attention to something completely different than the trance experience.

Arousing Submissive Triggers

When the trigger of a gun is pressed down, it causes the projectile of a bullet to be fired off. And, the entire process occurs instantly.

A trigger can also be in the form of a button that you push or a switch that you turn on or off. In fact, a trigger can be anything really. It can be a device, stimulus, or even an event that activates, releases or causes something else to happen.

Similarly, a mental or physical trigger can be anything that causes a certain physical and/or emotional response to occur.

It's a stimulus response that doesn't require any thinking on your part. It happens without the use nor need of conscious thought or will power.

For example, if a stranger were to pull a gun on you, your mind and body would immediately go through a series of immediate changes: your muscles would tighten, your heart would race, your breathing would grow faster, your eyes widen, and so on.

You don't have to think about doing any of the above things. They all just happen automatically. All of the above are emotional reactions to the state of "fear"... which is designed to get your body ready for the "fight or flight" response.

That's because, over the years, your mind and body has been programmed to associate a gun with "danger" or even "death," which is further associated with the emotion of "fear."

All of this happened without any instruction or conscious thought from you. Your mind simply "learned" to associate gun to fear – on it's own.

You don't have to tell or will your body to become fearful. It does that all by itself. And, since guns got linked in your mind to "fear" or "danger," the sight (or thought) of a gun being pointed at you would automatically trigger the emotion of fear in you.

Although the above "link" or association happened automatically, without any conscious effort on your part, these kinds of links/associations can also be created on purpose, when you know how, to link any trigger to cause a physical and/or emotional response.

These associations can be negative or positive. Your mind does not discriminate.

Just as a gun can trigger fear in a person, a bouquet of flowers may trigger the feelings of pleasure in some people.

Any and all of your senses can work as triggers. Certain smells, visual cues (images,) or sounds that can immediately take you back to that time in your life where that sensory stimulus was significant-causing all the emotions linked to that particular experience to come rushing back.

The smell of a certain perfume, the hearing of a particular song, the visual of a baby laughing-each of these can cause very specific emotional and physical responses in you, and in others.

And, of course, a "submission arousal trigger" can be used in a similar way to press a sensory "button" that would cause instantaneous submissive arousal in the person for whom the trigger is set (in this case, that would be you.) Without you having to think or will the response.

The quickest way to create a submissive arousal trigger is to “steal” what's already working for you, i.e. something that your mind and body has already been programmed to respond to submissively, and link it to a new, chosen trigger.

You most likely already have several "submissive arousal triggers" that you may or may not be aware of.

The sight of a man giving oral sex subserviently to a beautiful woman may get you turned on. Watching a movie or show on female led relationships.

Or...for most guys, watching porn related to submission would most definitely do it.

Write down what turns you on about submission. Remember, it doesn't matter how tame, unique, kinky, strange or even weird they are.

Compile a list of everything that gets you turned on, to the point where you have an erection. The harder and stronger the erections they can cause, the better those particular triggers will be for you to use for slave training. As an example, let's assume that watching submissive porn is what does it for you. Most guys can have an erection within the first few minutes of watching porn.

Others may take more or less time. And yet others may need to touch themselves while watching porn in order to get a full erection.

It doesn't matter how, or how long, it takes you to get there. The point is to get there. Get hard. Do the list now. After you are done doing that find a rubber band that fits around your wrist.

Step One: pick something that can get you really hard, and preferably in the shortest time possible.

*If you need to masturbate in order to get a strong erection, then do it.

Step Two: At this time, a rubber band should be around your right wrist. This rubber band symbolizes your submission. While you're in this peak state of watching submissive porn, hard as rock with pulsating energy, I want you to snap the rubber band around your wrist. That's it! That's the first piece on installing your own unique, powerful submissive arousal trigger.

Step Three: From now into the future you will wear the rubber band around your right wrist. You will snap the rubber band every time you are hard and aroused. It is also extremely important, when installing a trigger, to be sure to always repeat the process in exactly the same way. The more precise you are with this step, the more powerful your anchor will be. Make sure to snap the rubber band with the same two fingers every time.

If it takes you 30 repetitions to install the above anchor, over a period of several days, then do it. You already know that it will be well worth the effort once you have a powerful anchor installed to get you ready for action during the slave training programming cycles.

For best results, I would highly recommend that you install the above trigger - in the exact same way - at least once per day, for 21 to 30 days in a row without missing any days in between.

After you have done this for 30 days you can then do routine maintenance once per week or once every 2 weeks, by re-installing the anchor just to strengthen it and keep it working with maximum effectiveness.

Remember to always install the anchor only during a peak body/mind submissive arousal state. That means, only install it when you have a full, strong, hard erection. Do not go through with the trigger installation if you're only semi-hard.

Either get fully hard first...or...wait till later, if you're not able to get a full erection during that particular session.

Now keep the rubber band around your wrist from now into the future. This is your symbol of slave training. Every time you look or feel the rubber band you will know that you are going through this intense training.

Becoming A Congruent Sex Slave

This is the basis of a sub-modality shift to reshape the highest levels of identity within the submissive.

Does your submissive have any vanilla habits you want to change without effort and self-discipline?

Do any of their vanilla habits sabotage the scenes?

This is a generative pattern, which involves changing identity. Who is the “you” for whom this wouldn’t be a problem? Is it the calm secure person who responds carefully to a fetish sex scene? Maybe it’s the powerful confident person who loves being subservient.

We don’t deal with reality directly but through our models of it. Our responses come from our model. When we change the model, we change our responses.

Sarah was in the shopping mall when the Dom whispered a trigger into her ear. The submissive without conscious thought assumed the posture.

Before this programming Sarah used to put up resistance while in public. Now she knows it is harmless and most likely unnoticed by others around her, and at the same time she gets to enjoy the rush that comes with exposed D/s behavior in public.

Follow the steps below. Write out their answers to your questions on a separate piece of paper. There is a diagram of this exercise given after the steps.

1 Get Agreement: “Is it alright with your Unconscious Mind for you to make this change today to the deepest areas of sexual submission, and for you to be aware of it consciously?”

1. Get the unwanted behavior (Old State) of being “vanilla” “How do you know it’s time to be vanilla? When you think of that, do you have a picture?”

2. Break State: “Clear the screen’ - Move your eyes up and rotate them in a counter clockwise circle without moving your head.”

3. Get the Desired State (the New Sex Submissive State): “How would you like to feel/act sexually submissively? What kind of sexual submissive do you want to be? When you think of that, do you have a picture?”

4. Associate to New State: “Now step into your body, looking through your own eyes. What do you see? What do you notice?”

5. Adjust the visual aspects for most positive feelings. “Can you make that picture brighter, bigger and bring it closer to you?”

6. Dissociate from New State: “Good, now step out of the picture of you as sexual submissive, so you see your body in the picture.”

7. Break State: “Clear the screen" Move your eyes up and rotate them in a counter clockwise circle without moving your head.”

8. Associate to Old State: “Bring back that old picture of you as a vanilla. Now step into the picture so that you’re fully associated, looking through your own eyes and make it fill the screen. Notice what you see. What you feel. What you hear.”

9. Explain the “swap”: “Now take that picture of the New State of you being a sex slave and put it in the lower left hand corner, small and dark. When I say ‘SWAP!’ bring up the picture and make it explode BIG and BRIGHT on the screen, while the old picture of you being a vanilla rapidly shrinks to a distant point and disappears. This can happen as quickly as 1...2...3...SWAP! Are you ready?

10. “Ok, 1...2...3...SWAP! Good, open your eyes, close your eyes. Bring up the Old State of being a vanilla. Bring up the New State of being a sex slave in the corner... 1... 2... 3... SWAP!” Below is the programming that is to be said aloud while picking the specific unwanted state of not surrendering and picking the specific state of becoming a deep slave.

Close your eyes and open your eyes, close your eyes. Remember the old Unwanted State of being a vanilla/aspect of yourself that prevents you from submitting. 1... 2... 3... SWAP!” Bring up the New State of being a sex submissive in the corner... Make the new state bigger, brighter, closer to you.

And all of a sudden this new deep submissive you disappears.

Close your eyes and open your eyes, close your eyes. Remember the old Unwanted State of being a vanilla/aspect of yourself that prevents you from submitting. 1... 2... 3... SWAP!" Bring up the New State of being a sex slave in the corner... Make the new state bigger, brighter, even closer to you.

And all of a sudden this new deep submissive you disappears.

Close your eyes and open your eyes, close your eyes. Remember the old Unwanted State of being a vanilla/aspect of yourself that prevents you from submitting. 1... 2... 3... SWAP!" Bring up the New State of being a sex slave in the corner... Make the new state bigger, brighter, even closer to you.

And all of a sudden this new deep submissive you disappears.

Close your eyes and open your eyes, close your eyes. Remember the old Unwanted State of being a vanilla/aspect of yourself that prevents you from submitting. 1... 2... 3... SWAP!" Bring up the New State of being a sex submissive in the corner... Make the new state bigger, brighter, even closer to you. Becoming you.

Now how do you feel about the behavior of being vanilla? How is it different now?

Now go out in the future, which, if it would have happened in the past, you would have vanilla behavior and what happens instead?"

Advanced Obedience: Get Your Submissive To Listen To You Without Conscious Thought From Now Into The Future

“If you want to be obedient, act as if you already behave obediently.”

To develop a new more adaptive sexually obedient behavior within your submissive you must have a cohesive, outcome based strategy. What you're about to go through will illicit a state of deep sexual servitude that will act as a resource state from now into the future.

Step 1: To identify as a sexual submissive you will have to develop the part within your submissive associated with obedience

Step 2: Recall all situations in which you (they) have expressed obedience in some way, even if it wasn't sexual obedience. [You can have them write them out for you to use as references from now into the future].

Now pick one situation when you were obedient.

What is happening when you are obedient in that one situation? What do you see in the same obedient situation?

What do you hear?

What do you notice?

What do you feel?

Go back to that time as if you are there now.

Step 3: Now take a step back as if you are watching this one obedient situation on a movie screen. Now scan across the movie screen all of the obedient situations you have been in. Step back and watch them move across the screen.

Step 4: Is there any part of you that objects to any of these obedient situations?

Step 5: Now edit the situations that you have objections to as if they're a movie and you're editing the scenes of the obedience to be more aligned with making you feel congruent.

Notice how you are becoming more aligned and motivated to deeply be obedient in all the right ways.

Step 6: Now notice all of these edited obedient situations as if you are in the movie playing the obedient role.

What do you see?

What do you feel?

What do you notice?

What do you hear?

Now notice you are there. Close your eyes. Breathe in deeply and count from 10 to 1. At 1 open your eyes and read the sentence below.

“My subconscious mind will extract the rules and motivation from these obedient situations from now into the future. They are a part of me and they’re available when needed. My subconscious mind is now instructed to build a very effective, efficient obedient part for this purpose, and to give it tools to be obedient with ease. Every day and in every way my subconscious mind will work to build deep obedience while I sleep.”

Oral Sex Servitude

Without conscious thought, his lips began planting kisses on her thighs, moving slowly closer to the inside. He had to clasp his hands together, tightly, behind him in order to keep them there as he had been instructed.

His instinct to touch her threatened to betray his attempts to obey her completely. When he went through the programming he moved his lips up, at last offering himself entirely to the oral worship of her.

He wanted her more, more and more whenever she touched his shoulder.

His tongue worked to cover every inch of her pussy, his lips seeking to leave no part of her unattended. It was in this moment that he could, he knew, he demonstrated completely his adoration and self-worth to her. More accurately, it was in this moment that she could do nothing else but feel the raw intensity that comes with servitude.

Before you start the oral sex programming below understand that while reading aloud the programming you'll begin to notice your submissive display little flashes of positive feeling with their face and/or body. Noticing this can take practice, since everyone expresses differently. Some people may flash a smile, others wiggle their eyebrows, and others move their hands or bodies. (It's worthwhile to get into the habit of developing your awareness of other people's way of displaying their emotions).

Every time you notice that little flash of pleasure expressed by your slave, anchor them lightly but confidently on the elbow, forearm or shoulder. If either of you aren't comfortable making physical contact, use a head nod or distinctive hand gesture.

When first trying this, you can use a slightly exaggerated gesture, so there's no doubt. What you're doing is creating a connection between that emotion and the gesture you're using. With practice you can make this very subtle. Unless their emotional state is very strong and your anchoring gesture very particular, it will usually take several repetitions to create the anchor, so try to set the anchor at least six times. You should be able to do it within about five minutes of conversation.

"Can you remember a when you were giving oral sexual pleasure?"

"Can you remember a specific time?"

"As you go back to that time now... go right back to that time, float down into your body and see what you saw, hear what you heard, and really feel the feelings of being totally in the moment while giving that oral pleasure."

[Give them a few seconds to calibrate their past experiences or hallucinate one... Now anchor with a touch].

Say to your self aloud ,"Oral sex is a submissive's way of finding self-worth."

"Can you remember when the thought of her using your tongue to get off turned you on?"

“Red Lights” Going Beyond The Threshold

Annie had never felt anything like this before since she was too afraid to play with electrical sex toys.

She said it was more than a shock. It was like someone had hit her clit from within like a kid sticking a metal spoon into a light socket. I looked through the crack in the door and saw her twist like a mad woman. She screamed safe-words; she begged; she called on every dirty word she knew. They all bounced off him like raindrops off plastic. I stepped in the room and took over the scene. I said, “Now look if you go beyond this where will you be? What is your goal for this experience?”

If you have ears to hear, you can hear symbolic threshold phrases in every day language. If you can think back to times when you were communicating you might have heard the following:

“You have pushed me too far this time.”

“You went over the line one too many times.”

“I can’t take it anymore.”

“That’s one time too many.”

It doesn’t matter what context you were communicating about, thresholds happen when something is about to snap. These thresholds are made up of “undesirable” experiences that take you beyond what you think you’re capable of and ultimately expand your comfort zones. Whether you are whipped to extreme exhaustion or other extremes unlike you have experienced before.

Recognizing your threshold patterns for submission allows you to go “over the top” and be done with it. Submissive grow into comfort and adaptation for scenes and often time lose their ability to go beyond what they think they’re capable of. This is strictly the responsibility of the slave to recognize the threshold within oneself instead of screaming, “red light.” The secondary party has to calibrate your physical, mental wellbeing but if you are a ‘scared pussy cat’ it takes away from both parties involved.

Imagine you have been bending a spoon and the metal reaches a point where it breaks. Just like the spoon metaphor, when a submissive goes over threshold, there is almost always some representation of something snapping, breaking, popping or crashing. This can be done through visual, auditory and kinesthetic representations. After these representations have been shattered the submissive will find they're more resourceful. Often times, there might be a perceptual shift into dissociation.

To go beyond where you currently are as a submissive answer the following question.

“What do you need to do inside to get yourself to the point where you say or feel ‘no more’ I need to go beyond this now?”

When we go over this threshold, it provides a different future for the slave. A more attractive future because the negative representations of how the submissive processed scenes has been swapped. For example, you might have a belief that you can only take so much in particular BDSM scene to find yourself going beyond what you once thought was possible.

Advanced Hypnosis Techniques To Have Mind-Blowing Orgasms From Pain

I remember when I first started playing with pain induced orgasm and hypnosis.... I was in the kitchen at the dungeon. I could see Sally's nipples pressed against her little top and her tight shorts stretching around her slender ass. She didn't know how sexy she was, even when she wasn't trying to be. Sally dropped some carrots and bent over to pick them up. Her already tight shorts became even tighter and so much shorter. The wooden spoon in my hand seemed to beg to feel her ass. I reached back and gave her a quick crack that produced a surprisingly sharp sounding pop when it contacted her ass.

Sally let out a cry. She rubbed the spot with her fingers and then slid her shorts down far enough to search for the red spot. I saw it. It was a little larger than the head of the wooden spoon. A dull red patch on her otherwise smooth ass was on her right cheek. She pulled her shorts up and turned around to face me. "Do you want more?" I asked. A faint smile crossed Sally's lips, "No you know I don't get off on it."

"Sally have you ever fantasized about coming to being spanked?" I twisted the wooden spoon between my fingers and slowly licked it.

Sally bent over the counter top with her tight shorts lifted up as far as her back would arch. I drew back the spoon and swatted the other cheek slightly harder than the last. I whispered softly in her ear. It only took a few swats and she started to scream in amazement, "the sensation on my ass is moving to my pussy." I kept reinforcing the hyperlink and slowly she buckled to her knees in orgasm.

To give an orgasm through pain the first thing to consider is how you frame the context.

Frames are generally unconscious filters for a situation. Because they're often unspoken and unrecognized they can bypass your lover's critical. They can be highly hypnotic and highly covert.

Framing hypnosis in a sadistic/masochistic situation should be done in way as "something you already knew how to do but maybe didn't know you knew, or maybe you didn't know you could use it to go deeper into pleasure with your pain." You can have people understand hypnosis as the same to pretending, daydreaming or imagining.

Believing in your lover's ability, in their awareness, and in their desire to learn something new will give you an unfair advantage. I appeal in a matter-of-fact, expectant attitude to experiences I know they must have had with sexual fantasies since most S&M is purely based on their inner fantasy worlds.

I then build on these fantasies they have told me about to introduce, explain and demystify the forth-coming pain into orgasm hypnosis experience.

Thus, I may say, “You know how when you fantasize you can pretend to be wherever you are, maybe it is a steamy dungeon, and still be where you are?” And they understand. And I may add, “And you can notice everything about whatever you are fantasizing about-what you see and hear there. Isn’t that pretty neat?” And then I might matter-of-factly present a “quick opportunity” a brief hypnotic experience, designed purposely to associate them into the pain of their fantasy.

“Well before we do anything on purpose with this S&M play, lets just practice some pretending, fantasizing and relaxing together [reassurance to the submissive that he/she is not alone] to remember how easy it is to fantasize. So just get comfortable and close your eyes and start fantasizing about something.

“While you are fantasizing make sure it is really fun and you might notice you are getting spanked, flogged, caned-I don’t know which one you like the best-just make sure it is fun.

Pain Into Orgasm Techniques

Analgesia can be created in the hypnotized lover by simply suggesting that perception of pain is changing. It may be easier for your lover to notice a growing arousal from the pain. For example, “You may remember a time in your past when you felt yourself get wet, hot and aroused and begin already imagining that such arousal is beginning, just barely, to become more and more apparent.”

Substitution of a painful sensation by a different sensory experience can enable a lover to take more pain. For example, in needle play you might feel a sharp pain that stings this can be substituted by suggesting a vibration and a temperature change within their body.

“The stabbing needles might become, in a surprising way, a buzzing, a warm vibration moving down and down to a place that hasn’t been touched in a very long time [i.e., pussy].” You can even turn the sensation into a tickle.

Displacement of the locus of pain to a different area of the body, or, sometimes, to area outside of the body, can provide an opportunity to the lover to experience sensations, but in a less vulnerable, less painful area.

“As you continue to pay attention to the flogger on your ass, let me know when you feel the slight movement of that feeling... That’s right, just notice that movement continues to move clockwise down into between your legs, in an ever increasing spiral, moving round and round your pussy and clit, and notice it begins to change...”

Dissociation of awareness and Redirection this can be created when your lover doesn’t need to very functional, a lover who is just lying tied up, and they are very immobile. The lover can be taught simply to begin fantasizing about themselves in a different time, a different place and deep into a fantasy that really gets them wet and ready to orgasm. For example, you can tell your lover that while their body is tied up their mind is free to float out the window and into their fantasy, “your mind, your awareness, can just float easily outside your body, and move to the window and out the window into your deepest darkest arousing fantasies. Your pussy will get wet.”

It's the hottest, most highly requested material I've ever developed...

You can't be a part of this slave training unless you promise to use it ethically

No. I haven't lost my marbles. But you've never been exposed to...

“The Power of Mind Slave Training”

Dear Dominant/submissive,

You are reading a letter that I never thought I would write. However, my phone has been ringing off the hook. People begging me to allow them to purchase the Slave Training and it keeps growing. It is the hottest, most powerful set of sexual mind domination tools I have ever produced. But I never thought I would ever let them out of my possession.

They call me the ‘Domina of the Mind’ because I can teach hypnotic mind-phocking skills more quickly and more simply than anyone alive. But there is one set of skills that I never wanted to share with others for a very important reason. I believed they were too powerful and — quite frankly — too dangerous for the general public.

It was a few years ago when one of the “founders” of ‘Covert Hypnosis’ used a technique on me that absolutely devastated me and turned me into an eager and willing sexual slave.

Back then I had no clue what it was or what it was called, but it was so powerful, it took months to come back all I could do was ride the waves of ecstasy until the storm in my loins cleared. It took away my inhibitions and even blurred my sexual desires to be with anyone else. It was hair raising to say the least.

Only later did I learn that this was my first exposure to “slave training.”

Most recently, I have received worried emails from submissives detailing how a select group of Trainers have used these technologies on them — with explosive effects. I have been hearing more and more of these reports.

A submissive who had taken a training in Paris just emailed me. In the course of the training, she had a disagreement with the trainer. To get even, the trainer used one of these destructive sexual technologies on her. Weeks passed. Her sex life was in shambles. She could only think of him obediently. Her orgasms were controlled remotely. She learned the power of covert Slave Training — against her will.

When “The Slave Training” technologies are used — it not only can instantly erase an inhibition, it can control and sexually ravage a mind. And it stays in operation until you get it erased or until you slowly, over time, recondition your mind. But for some people, that will never happen and the sexual obedience lingers.

What's this got to do with you? Everything... if you want deep submission you have to start becoming aware of how these powers are going to be used to switch you into a mindless sex slave.

My trainings are comprehensive. I teach everything you need to know about mind control from power-suggestion tactics, to triggers, and orgasm control. If you master the techniques I teach you, you become a powerful erotic hypnotist or a very obedient subject.

But although hypnosis can be used for submission and slave training, in most cases I have encountered, people are using it incorrectly and it's creating a lot of hype. Minds are being tinkered with by unskilled charlatans. It's creating devastation. I'm very reluctant to bring REAL Mental Sex Slavery Technologies to the forefront because I now face a dilemma.

My Dilemma

Here's the problem I face: Once you experience these powerful technologies, you can rapidly and easily recognize when someone tries to use them on you. These Slave Training technologies are getting out in the worst possible way. A few trainers are using them just to be nasty and vindictive. Notice, I'm hearing about the technologies being used here, not denials. So right now, the only way to learn about these Slave Training technologies is to be on the receiving end with obvious consequences: sexual obedience to none other than me.

It's EASY To Cause Serious Submission With These Technologies!

I know most guys just refuse to believe that this type of power of your sexual mind exists. But that's like defending yourself using a spoon against a double-edged blade.

And remember... I CAN'T be pulling your leg. The entire professional erotic hypnosis community is watching.

They are furious that I want to make this slave training technology public.

The reason they are furious is that this is a well-kept secret of the "elite" in this field. The few that know it that they aren't about to release it under any conditions to anyone.

The only way I know it is that I was personally taught this by the same person that did it to me a few years after I "snapped out of it". I was taught the technology and directed to use to use it on a person the trainer wanted to be more sexually obedient.

Well, listen up. You can start using these technologies in your sex life and be deep in submission from them overnight. What's more...

It doesn't matter if you're into the latest new hot submission or slave technique. It doesn't matter if you've been certified in hypnosis... And... it doesn't matter if you still think these technologies don't exist.

Nope. The ONLY thing that matters... is your desire to give obedient pleasure.

Spilling the Beans in Public

I've decided to reluctantly reveal these Slave Training Technologies so people can develop higher into their true purpose of giving pleasure. Moreover, some of these technologies can be harnessed for good and can boost your relationship with the significant other.

But what you don't know, you can't use.

Remember, I had these sexual mind technologies used on me — that's how I know what it is. Then it was explicitly taught to me for the purposes of having me “mold submissive mentally and obedience” into beautiful women.

Then I began to look for all the other ways this technology could be used sexually for slave training.

I started getting people sending me material from around the world and I began compiling it.

ALL these skills require absolute cooperation. They are advanced. This is not for beginners. No one is going to get the Slave Training without the proper frame to put it in and the ethics behind it.

Slave Training can be seductive. If you are not well grounded in the mental training for sex technologies I teach I worry you will fall victim to their seductive power.

This material is not for those just trying it out or squeamish.

You see I'm worried. What worries me is if someone uses the technologies to become addicted to the slave training and they can't see straight. I recently had to revoke listening privileges from one slave who was masturbating at work. He couldn't control herself.

I boiled 7 slave training technologies down to their most powerful, most sexual — the ones that if you don't know of their existence they absolutely will kick your ass if they are used on you.

I also choose them in terms of their usefulness in other areas. Some of the strategies behind them can be used for good as well like being able to orgasm without any physical stimulation when you are going down on a beautiful woman. But it's in the understanding of how they can be used for sexual submission that you will understand how to use them for positive bleed overs into other areas of your life.

In the end, I had just 7 Sex Slave Training Technologies. Just 7...

But That's All You Need!

I taught them behind closed doors at my Advanced Slave Training seminar in 2009. You could have heard a pin drop in the room as I went through these technologies. But that was just the beginning.

Since the seminar, not a week goes by without a slew of emails hitting me and asking when I am going to release the Slave Training Technologies. And I've been struggling with it. Quite frankly, I deliberately kept them off the market. Until now.

It was that call I took from Paris that really irritates me. Here was a person completely distraught. Her self-esteem could be counted in negative numbers. She couldn't function. She could barely dress himself. I later learned someone had used the Imagined Restraints Technology on her and had combined it with powerful sexual suggestions that got her to associate her orgasm only to the person she had pissed off. I decided to take action.

Frankly, I'm worried that person using the multiple slave training technologies might become too obsessed with giving pleasure, they become living only for the mere idea of it being mentioned in the programs.

Deeper, Deeper and Deeper Than Before

You can "install" these Slave Training technologies into your life almost overnight. Just listen to these astonishing recordings... and then choose who you want to sexually worship and it doesn't have to be me even though it is me training you to be the best slave any Domina would desire. It can be your very own Domina or even a model you worship. You might even want to transfer it covertly to your own wife/girlfriend/boyfriend/husband.

But even if you don't have someone to transfer this 'power over you' to, I will always reaffirm that growing slave part of you.

Extremely Power Sexual Programming

These technologies are extremely powerful. But they've been held for too long in the hands of people using them for vicious purposes. And that's the problem. We have to use Slave Training in a constructive manner. There is a system you have to go through to make your mind obedient, to rewire your sexual responses-even though there are some people out that just want to give you premature ejaculation. We have to do it the right way and that is step-by-step programming your mind and body to sexually respond obediently in an ethical manner.

Listen: When you are suffering and in pain because someone gave you blue balls of tease and denial, and damn it, the technology worked. As soon as you discover that it was a Slave Training Technology that made you suffer, you'll wish you had grabbed this set during the limited time period that it's being made available.

Or, let's say you are going to a dominatrix and you find yourself having a squirting orgasm before the session even began, chances are the other person used one of these Slave Training technologies on you.

No one buys life insurance and looks forward to using it. These technologies are your insurance. One day you will be thankful you recognize and know they have conditioned your mind and body to work for your mistress instead of against both of you.

Slave MIND Training is now available for a limited time...

That means exactly what it says. I am so torn about the release of this training. I am only prepared for a limited release at this time.

Here's what I mean.

I am afraid that some of the people who get a hold of the Slave Training Technologies are going to use them to get sexually addicted only living to hear my voice. That is a lot of individual attention I'll be giving each slave who calls the office for support.

I'm worried about someone lover not being able to leave the bed because they slipped the recordings on while she was sleeping and she wakes up sexually needing you over and over and over again.

I'm not interested to see if I can turn you into a monster on the streets only living to give sexual pleasure.

And here's the big secret no one else will tell you: Just by listening to this amazing audio course... you will learn seven system all submissive slaves should go through that will turbocharge their obedience (without affecting anything else) with more PURE SURRENDER than you ever believe you could have. That's another benefit right there.

You'll also learn the simple secrets to being taken sexually into mind warping.

I'm worried that you will decide that it's more fun to simply use the Slave Training when you don't get what you want instead of simply walking away.

Here are the Slave Training Technologies That I will Be Sharing (Forgive me, but I can not say more on this page)

Special Announcement

These technologies are very unique. And it is available for only 24 hours after you get the book. At that time, it goes off the market. If you are one of the thousands of people who have benefited from one of my programs, you know that one thing is true — I mean what I say.

So trust me, I'm as serious as a heart attack. You will not see this program after 24 hours.

This program is being sold under the following conditions.

When you purchase this program now you are agreeing to use the Slave Training only in the appropriate manner.

Bottom line — no one gets this program unless you agree to use it only for ethical Slave Training. If you use it to become a sexual addict you must take full responsibility for it.

This course does not have our usual money back guarantee. In fact, you may not return the course for any reason. We will replace damaged or defective media for you at no charge, of course.

The reason we have taken this unusual approach is that the only people that should be purchasing this course are those that already are inner circle members. If you have, you know just how good our material is and you probably can't wait to be in slave training.

This course is simply nitroglycerin. The temptation for people to do most anything to get it will be very high. Our no return policy on this course insures we are keeping the material away from those devious enough to try it.

This material is priceless. No doubt about it. And it is worth its weight in gold.

I watched as the mood in the seminar I taught these technologies went from being high and excited to down right stunned what they could do their slaves and their slaves need for pleasure. They couldn't even imagine that such power was being put into their hands.

In fact, it's the people who were at the training who are the one's clamoring for its release.

Do you have the ability to find the way to use this slave training for positive reinforcement?

Do you have the ability to resist the temptation of masturbating to triggers when you are in public?

Can you walk away from pleasure even though you desperately crave it now even though you have to go to work?

Can you accept that your submission is deeper than physical sexual acts?

IF you can genuinely answer yes to these questions (as well as the other ones that popped into your head as you were reading these) then you have the type of mentality that can withstand Slave Training.

I was still torn about letting this material go public. Finally, Jessica Williams, a submissive and the manager here at the hypnosis office suggested something.

“Kali, people know the quality of your trainings. The right slaves will use this in the way you intend. They'll recognize the value of it. And they'll be grateful that you made it public.”

Well, that did it for me. If this trains minds correctly as a sexual slave then there is nothing more than I desire. Except to see you squirm in imagine restraints with pleasure.

Can You Be Ethically Bribeed?

I believe that Slave Training is one of the most important works I have ever released. Although relatively short in length (it's about two hours long), pound for pound, there is serious power packed in this audio program. But there is far more included.

BONUS ONE:

I am including a video of the Slave Positions. This special video plays on your computer. It's an MPEG file that plays on Windows Media Player. The video enables you to watch several important clips. You'll want to study this video again and again.

BONUS TWO:

I am including a blueprint of transferring the power of Slave Training to any Domina/Master in your life. I've never included this blueprint before in any of my trainings but this time, the stakes are too high. If you are going to be able to live a slave lifestyle you will want this.

BONUS THREE:

I am also going to include a bonus of Slave Life Workbook. I can't think of a better compliment to the Slave Training material. This was written and thrown into the vault never released before. It is a workbook for the slave to erase inhibitions and go deeper into pleasure.

This bonus conclusively proves that you can use the Slave Training materials with good intentions and results.

BONUS FOUR: (And this one will take your breathe away!) Because you need a thorough background in Slave Training, I am including THE ENTIRE 2009 SLAVE TRAINING SEMINAR! It shows the secret structure to how to turn someone into a mindless obedient sex slave.

I'm doing something here that I thought I'd never do. Many people have asked me to release the 2009 Slave Training Seminar in MP3 Format I have decided to do exactly that. Now, you can transfer these MP3s to your portable player to listen while you drive to work.

This is the ONLY way to get hold of the 2009 Slave Training Seminar. So, for all of you who have been asking, the time to act is now.

You can get your copy of Slave Training (plus all of the bonuses) for $69 within 24 hours of purchasing this book. But there's an old saying, you snooze, you lose. Order it and save today.

Please give me feedback on how you have found ways to use the Slave Training in positive ways. And please also report ANY use that you discover of ANYONE using these Slave Training strategies in a negative way.

Here's how to order...

Go to <http://www.SlaveInTraining.com/book>

With pleasure,

Kali DuBois

P.S. Remember that before we process your order, you'll need to now agree to use Slave Training for yourself ethically.

P.P.S. Remember that when you order, you receive the Slave Training on CD's, the video, the workbook, the Sexual Power Transfer Blueprint and the entire 2009 Slave Training Seminar.

P.P.P.S. If you are serious about your slave training and order this training, I will work with you outside of the training showing you how you can combine the two. You can even call me at the office if you have a question.

P.P.P.P.S. Remember, the time to order the Slave Training is now. The price goes up in one week and I am taking the set off the market. Of course, if I hear that someone is misusing the technologies that I train you in, I may halt the sale sooner than that.
